If the Company receives postal votes or authorisations and instructions for Company proxies by several means of transmission (post, fax or e-mail), the last formally valid postal vote or proxy with relevant instructions received will be considered binding.

In properly received or inconclusive postal votes are counted as invalid for the respective agenda items. If instructions are not properly filled out or not clearly given, the Company proxies, depending on the voting procedure, will either abstain or not participate in the voting for the respective agenda items. The Company proxies are required to vote in accordance with your instructions and are not permitted to exercise your voting right in ballots that were not announced before the General Shareholders' Meeting (e.g. procedural motions). Depending on the voting procedure, the Company proxies will either abstain or not participate in the voting in these cases. You cannot instruct the Company proxies to raise an objection, file a motion or ask questions.

The personal attendance of a shareholder or an authorised third party at the General Shareholders' Meeting will be deemed to constitute a revocation of the postal votes previously cast. Proxy to the Company proxies must be revoked in text form.
